

Join us for the Diary of a Wimpy Kid Summer Challenge!

Leaders,

This challenge is based on the book/movie Diary of a Wimpy Kid Dog Days (pictured above). Girls who participate in the challenge activities can earn the Diary of a Summer Girl fun patch pictured in the center above. The patch design has been approved, so there are no copyright issues!

Suggested challenges are included, but please feel free to adjust/adapt to better fit the needs of your group! Girls do not need to do every activity to earn the fun patch; however, the activities are so much fun that they won't want to do just one! ☺ You may choose to host a kick-off party for your Summer Challenge! If so, check out this link for a free printable party kit:

Patches can be ordered for $2.25 each at: 1darlingcreation.com.

Happy Scouting!

Wendy
